

EQUALITY POLICY

| | | | |
|-------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Equality Policy | | | |
| Authors: | Jane Harvey & James Kennedy | Version: | 2- 23.08.2019 |
| Date of Approval: | 23.08.2019 | Status: | Final |
| Date of Issue: | | Date of Review: | 1 year from date of approval |

The Scottish Council of Taekwondo, address contact details and web address

(1) Objectives

- (a) This policy is designed to ensure equality of opportunity for people who wish to practice Taekwondo in Scotland. The Scottish Council of Taekwondo is fully committed to the principles of equality of opportunity and is responsible for ensuring that no job applicants, employees, workers, office holders, volunteers, participants or members (together 'Stakeholders') are unlawfully discriminated against because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation (together the 'Protected Characteristics').
- (b) In addition the Scottish Council of Taekwondo recognises that we live in a diverse society and will endeavour to ensure that all Stakeholders are given the same opportunities regardless of their socio-economic backgrounds or political persuasion.
- (c) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will insist partner organisations, including member clubs, affiliated associations, suppliers, sponsors and customers, adopt and demonstrate their commitment to the principles and practice of equality as set out in this Equality Policy.

(2) Statement of Policy

- (a) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo recognises that individuals (and/or certain groups in our society who share one or more Protected Characteristics) may not have been able to participate equally and fully in Taekwondo-related activities (including but not limited to: training, competing, refereeing, organising, volunteering, coaching, and selecting) in the past. In some instances, this may have been as a result of unlawful discrimination.-
- (b) This Policy is designed to prevent and address any unlawful discrimination or other unfair treatment, whether intentional or unintentional, direct or indirect, against Stakeholders that may preclude them from participating fully in Taekwondo-related activities.

(3) Statement of Intent

- (a) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo recognises that individuals (and/or certain groups in our society who share one or more Protected Characteristics) may not have been able to participate equally and fully in sports-related activities in the past. In some instances, this may have been as a result of unlawful discrimination.

(2) Legal Requirements

- (a) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo is required by law not to unlawfully discriminate against its Stakeholders and recognises its legal obligations under, and will abide by the requirements of, the Equality Act 2010 and any equivalent legislation (as amended) and any later amendments to such legislation or subsequent equality related legislation that may be relevant to the Scottish Council of Taekwondo.

- (b) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will seek advice each time this Policy is reviewed to ensure it continues to reflect the current legal framework and good practice.

(3) Discrimination, harassment, bullying and victimisation

- (a) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo recognises the following as being unacceptable:

- (i) Unlawful discrimination which can take the following forms:

- (1) Direct Discrimination

Treating someone less favourably than you would treat others because of a Protected Characteristic.

- (2) Indirect Discrimination

Applying a provision, criterion or practice which, on the face of it, applies equally to all but which, in practice can disadvantage individuals with a particular Protected Characteristic. Such requirements or conditions are lawful only if they can be objectively justified.

- (ii) Harassment

Engaging in unwanted conduct relating to a relevant Protected Characteristic or unwanted conduct of a sexual nature where the conduct has the purpose or effect of violating the recipient's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for the recipient, or any other individual affected by such conduct. The Scottish Council of Taekwondo is committed to ensuring that its Stakeholders are able to conduct their activities free from harassment.

- (iii) Bullying

The misuse of power or position to criticise persistently or to humiliate and undermine an individual's confidence.

- (iv) Victimisation

Subjecting someone to a detriment because he or she has in good faith taken action under the Equality Act 2010 (or equivalent legislation) by bringing proceedings, giving evidence or information in relation to proceedings, making an allegation that a person has contravened the Equality Act 2010 (or equivalent legislation) or doing any other thing for the purpose of or in connection with the Equality Act 2010 (or any equivalent legislation).

- (b) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo regards discrimination, harassment, bullying or victimisation, as described above, as serious misconduct. All complaints will be taken seriously and appropriate measures including disciplinary action may be brought against any Stakeholder who unlawfully discriminates against, harasses, bullies or victimises any other person.

(4) Reasonable Adjustments

- (a) When any decision is made about an individual, the only personal characteristics that may be taken into account are those that are consistent with any relevant legislation and are relevant to the substance of the decision being made.
- (b) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo recognises that it has a duty to make reasonable adjustments for disabled persons. The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will consider all requests for adjustments and where possible will accommodate reasonable requests and will work with disabled Stakeholders to implement any adjustments that will enable them to participate more fully in sports related activities.

(5) Transgender Athletes

The Scottish Council of Taekwondo considers that Taekwondo is a gender affected sport under the Equality Act 2010. No policy in relation to participation by transgender athletes currently is in place. However, any transgender athlete looking to participate in the Scottish Council of Taekwondo is requested to contact the Equality Officer who will work with the transgender athlete to formulate a policy. Any such request will be dealt with in the strictest confidence.

(6) Responsibility, implementation and communication

- (a) The following responsibilities will apply:
 - (i) The Board of the Scottish Council of Taekwondo is responsible for ensuring that this Equality Policy is implemented, followed, and reviewed when appropriate. The Board is also responsible for ensuring that this Equality Policy is enforced and any breaches are dealt with appropriately.
 - (ii) A member of the Board will be appointed as the 'Equality Champion' and will ensure that equality is included as an agenda item at Board meetings when appropriate and that the Board takes equality issues into consideration when making decisions.
 - (iii) The Chief Executive has the overall responsibility for the implementation of this Equality Policy.
 - (iv) A member of staff will be designated as the Equality Officer by the Chief Executive, and will have the overall day-to-day responsibility for the implementation of this Equality Policy and for achieving any equality related actions resulting from it. The Equality Officer's work programme will be amended to reflect this. If required, an internal and/or external equality group will be created to provide additional support.

- (v) All Stakeholders have the responsibility to respect, follow and promote the spirit and intentions of this Equality Policy. Individual work programmes for staff will be amended to include equality related tasks where appropriate.
- (b) This Equality Policy will be implemented immediately following Board approval. Implementation requires the following actions:
- (i) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will regularly review its employment practices to ensure continuing compliance with relevant legislation, and where possible good practice. All job packs sent out by The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will contain a policy statement similar to the following: "The Scottish Council of Taekwondo aims to be an equal opportunity employer and is determined to ensure that no applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of gender, age, disability, religion, belief, sexual orientation, marital status, or race"
 - (ii) No applicant for any post (including job applicants, consultant advisers and suppliers) will be placed at a disadvantage by requirements or conditions which are not necessary to the performance of the job or which constitute unlawful discrimination.
 - (iii) Consultants and advisers (and where appropriate suppliers) to the Scottish Council of Taekwondo agree to comply with all laws and regulations relating to the services and the specific Scottish Council of Taekwondo operational regulations.
- (c) This Equality Policy will be communicated in the following ways:
- (i) The Policy will be included in any employee handbook (or equivalent paper or electronic document). Reference will be made to this Equality Policy in any code of conduct. This Equality Policy is for guidance only and will not form part of any contract of employment with any employees of the Scottish Council of Taekwondo;
 - (ii) The Policy will be highlighted in all staff and volunteer inductions;
 - (iii) A copy of this Equality Policy will be publicly available on the Scottish Council of Taekwondo website and copies in other formats will also be available. All members will be made aware of the Policy when they join;
 - (iv) Each time this Policy is reviewed, Scottish Council of Taekwondo Stakeholders will be consulted. Following consultation, a notice of the changes being made will be publicly available and a direct communication will be sent to all those who contributed to the consultation process (subject to Data Protection provisions); and

- (v) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will promote continuing professional development for all employees and volunteers to support equal opportunities within the organisation and, where appropriate, provide specialist facilities, equipment or training.

(7) Actions

- (a) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will produce, maintain and monitor an Equality Action Plan to ensure the objectives of this Equality Policy are consistently delivered throughout all areas of the organisation.
- (b) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will work with national partners to ensure that best practice is implemented through the Equality Action Plan.
- (c) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo will monitor representation of its Board and members to ensure diversity is represented at all levels.
- (d) The Scottish Council of Taekwondo recognises that, in some cases, to further the principle of equality, an unequal distribution of resources may be required. If appropriate and proportionate, the Scottish Council of Taekwondo will consider positive action or may introduce special measures to assist any group with a Protected Characteristic which is currently underrepresented within any group of Stakeholders.

(8) Monitoring and Evaluation

- (a) This Equality Policy will remain in force until it is amended, replaced or withdrawn. A review of this Equality Policy will take place as and when required, but not less than once every three years.
- (b) The Equality Action Plan, created to ensure the objectives of this Equality Policy are delivered, will be reviewed by the Chief Executive and the Equality Officer regularly, but in any event not less than once every 12 months.
- (c) On an annual basis, statistical and, if appropriate qualitative, information will be collected and a report will be produced by the Chief Executive for the Board. Once approved by the Board the report will be published internally and externally, to show the impact of this Equality Policy and progress towards achieving the Equality Action Plan.

(9) Complaints Procedures

- (a) To safeguard individual rights under this Equality Policy, any Stakeholder who believes they have suffered inequitable treatment within the scope of this Equality Policy may raise the matter through the appropriate procedure (i.e. the employee grievance procedure for employees or the complaints procedure for Stakeholders who are not employees).
- (b) Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any Scottish Council of Taekwondo Stakeholder who violates this Equality Policy under the employee disciplinary procedure or the Scottish Council of Taekwondo disciplinary procedure.

- (c) An individual raising an employee grievance will not be penalised for doing so unless it is untrue and not made in good faith.
- (d) As with all grievance and disciplinary procedures, the final point of appeal relating to this policy is the Board.

(10) Other Policies

In observance of this policy, all stakeholders must also adhere to the following:

- The Scottish Council of Taekwondo Safeguarding Policy
- The Scottish Council of Taekwondo Disciplinary Policy
- The Scottish Council of Taekwondo Code of Conduct
- The Scottish Council of Taekwondo Policy & Procedures Manual

The authors of this document are not legal experts so any reference to legal matters should not be taken as an authoritative interpretation of the law.